DOUBLE-UP RULES

The Dispatch Rules Committee submitted for consideration Double-Up Rules which were approved at both the July 25, 2024 and August 8, 2024 Executive Board meetings and the September 5, 2024 Membership Meeting.

Dispatch for Dayside Class A - Double-Up Rule

Assuming all Class Bs have had a work opportunity and there are no dry runs, 1 and go, 4 and go, 5 and go and so on.

Starting with 8 and go and above, double up, triple, quadruple etc. Procedures for dayside Class A Double-up Rule as follows:

1. 8 and go original board
  2. 8 and go low board sequencing for that shift
  3. 8.5 and go original board
  4. 8.5 and go low board sequencing for that shift
  5. 9 and go original board
  6. 9 and go low board sequencing for that shift
- And so on and so forth

If more than one member is on the same hours for the day and checked in on the same board, those members shall be dispatched by lowest hours for the month in that grouping.

For example, if a heavy lift is ordered after all Class A members have worked, the job would be dispatched as follows:

- 8 and go checked in on the jitney board.
- If more than one member is 8 and go jitney board, members will be dispatched by lowest hours for the month in the grouping.
- After 8 and go jitney would be 8 and go in low board sequence for that day.

(Added per motion from August 8, 2024 Executive Board Meeting)

PCLCD section 8.41 reads :

- First preference of employment and dispatch shall be given to fully registered longshoremen who are available for employment covered by Section 1 of this Contract Document in accordance with the rules and regulations adopted by the Joint Port Labor Relations Committee. A similar second preference shall be so given to limited registered men. The Joint Coast Labor Relations Committee shall be authorized to effectuate such preferences in such manner and for such times and places as it determines in its discretion.

Fraternally,

Gary Herrera
President

Mario Medina
Vice President

Gabe Zuniga
